

EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS OF THE REPUBLIC
OF THE PHILIPPINES
First Regular Session

19 JUL -1 P5:57

SENATE
S.B. NO. 111

DRA. NANCY S. BINAY

Introduced by Senator Maria Lourdes Nancy S. Binay

AN ACT

AMENDING REPUBLIC ACT NO. 9262, DEFINING ELECTRONIC VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN OR E-VAW, PROVIDING PROTECTIVE MEASURES AND PRESCRIBING PENALTIES THEREFOR, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Since the enactment of Republic Act No. 9262, or the Anti-Violence Against Women and Their Children Act of 2004 ("VAWC Law"), women and their children have been provided with additional legal alternatives and protection against abusive conduct and violence. However, the law has not taken into consideration the prevalent and widespread reach of the internet and communications technology.

With the ongoing development in information and communications technology, the general public has gained another medium of expression, both responsibly and irresponsibly. More than a form of communication, social media was used in several instances as a mode of disseminating scandals involving both television personalities and private individuals. While Republic Act No. 9995 or the Anti-Photo and Video Voyeurism Act of 2009, sought to prevent further acts of said nature from permeating the various medium of information and communications technology, the said law failed to address the form of violence brought on victims of such scandals, by reason of their special relationships with their assailants.

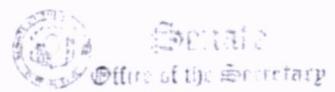

In this regard, the proposed amendment of the VAWC Law includes electronic violence against women and to offer protection to women in the form of E-VAW Protection Orders.

In view of the foregoing, the passage of this bill is earnestly recommended.

MARIA LOURDES NANCY S. BINAY
Senator

11
12                 Sec. 5. Section 8 of Republic Act No. 9262, otherwise known as the Anti-
13 Violence Against Women and Their Children Act of 2004, is hereby amended to 14 read as follows:

15
16                 “SECTION 8. Protection Orders. – A protection order is an order
17 issued under this Act for the purpose of preventing further acts
18 of violence against a woman or her child specified in Section 5
19 of this Act and granting other necessary relief. The relief granted
20 under a protection order serves the purpose of safeguarding
21 the victim from further harm, minimizing any disruption in the 22 victim’s daily life, and facilitating the opportunity and ability of 23 the victim to independently regain control over her life. The 24 provisions of the protection order shall be enforced by law
25 enforcement agencies. The protection orders that may be
26 issued under this Act are the barangay protection order (BPO),
27 temporary protection order (TPO), [and] permanent protection
28 order (PPO) AND E-VAW PROTECTION ORDER (EPO) FOR 29 CASES OF ELECTRONIC VIOLENCE. The protection orders that

1 may be issued under this Act shall include any, some or all of
2 the following reliefs:

3
4 x x x
5

6 (I) For E-VAW cases, ordering the immediate blocking,
7 blacklisting, removal or shut down of any upload, program or 8 application that causes or tends to cause violence against the 9 victim.

10 Any of the reliefs provided under this section shall be granted
11 even in the absence of a decree of legal separation or 12 annulment or declaration of absolute nullity of marriage.

13
14 The issuance of a BPO or the pendency of an application for 15 BPO shall not prejudice a petitioner from applying for, or the 16 court from granting a TPO, [or] PPO OR EPO."

17
18
19 Sec. 7. Section 11 of Republic Act No. 9262, otherwise known as the Anti-
20 Violence Against Women and Their Children Act of 2004, is hereby amended to
21 read as follows:

22
23 "SECTION 11. How to Apply for a Protection Order. – The 24 application for a protection order must be in writing, signed and 25 verified under oath by the applicant. It may be filed as an 26 independent action or as an incidental relief in any civil or
27 criminal case the subject matter or issues thereof partakes of a
28 violence as described in this Act. A standard protection order
29 application form, written in English with translation to the major
30 local languages, shall be made available to facilitate

1 applications for protection order, and shall contain, among
2 others, the following information:

- 3
- 4 (a) Names and addresses of petitioner and respondent;
- 5
- 6 (b) Description of relationships between petitioner and 7 respondent;
- 8
- 9 (c) A statement of the circumstances of abuse;
- 10
- 11 (d) Description of the reliefs requested by petitioner as 12 specified in Section 8 herein;
- 13
- 14 (e) Request for counsel and reasons for such;
- 15
- 16 (f) Request for waiver of applications fees until hearing; and
- 17
- 18 (g) An attestation that there is no pending application for a 19 protection order in another court.

20

21 If the applicant is not the victim, the application must be
22 accompanied by an affidavit of the applicant attesting to: (a)
23 The circumstances of the abuse suffered by the victim; and (b)
24 The circumstances of consent given by the victim for the filing
25 of the application. When disclosure of the address of the victim
26 will pose danger to her life, it shall be so stated in the 27 application. In such a case, the applicant shall attest that the 28 victim is residing in the municipality or city over which court
29 has territorial jurisdiction, and shall provide a mailing address
30 for purpose of service processing.

1
2 An application for protection order filed with a court shall be
3 considered an application for both a TPO and PPO.
4

5 AN APPLICATION FOR BPO, TPO OR PPO SHALL
6 AUTOMATICALLY INCLUDE AN APPLICATION FOR EPO. THE 7 LATTER MAY BE ISSUED AS PART OF THE CONDITIONS FOR
8 THE BPO, TPO OR PPO OR AS A SEPARATE PROTECTION
9 ORDER.

11 Barangay officials and court personnel shall assist applicants in 12 the preparation of the application. Law enforcement agents
13 shall also extend assistance in the application for protection
14 orders in cases brought to their attention."

15
16 Sec. 8. Section 16-A is hereby inserted to read as follows:

17
18 "SECTION 16-A. E-VAW PROTECTION ORDER. – IN CASES OF 19 ELECTRONIC VIOLENCE, A E-VAW PROTECTION ORDER MAY 20 ISSUED SIMULTANEOUSLY OR SUBSEQUENT TO THE
21 ISSUANCE OF A BPO, TPO OR PPO.

22
23 E-VAW PROTECTION ORDERS SHALL BE ISSUED BY THE 24 BARANGAY OR THE COURTS, AS THE CASE MAY BE,
25 INDEPENDENTLY OF OR IN ADDITION TO NON-E-VAW
26 PROTECTION ORDERS. HOWEVER, AN E-VAW PROTECTION
27 ORDER, ONCE ISSUED, DOES NOT EXPIRE AND CONTINUES
28 TO TAKE EFFECT WHILE THE CASE IS PENDING AND UNTIL
29 THE SAME IS REVOKED BY THE ORDER OF THE COURT."

1           Sec. 9. Section 39 of Republic Act No. 9262, otherwise known as the Anti-
2 Violence Against Women and Their Children Act of 2004, is hereby amended to
3 read as follows:

4

5           *"Section 39. Inter-Agency Council on Violence Against Women
6 and Their Children (IAC-VAWC).* In pursuance of the 7 abovementioned policy, there is hereby established an Inter-
8 Agency Council on Violence Against Women and Their Children,
9 hereinafter known as the Council, which shall be composed of 10 the following agencies:

17

18           (M) DEPARTMENT OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY (DOST).

19

20           These agencies are tasked to formulate programs and projects
21 to eliminate VAW based on their mandates as well as develop
22 capability programs for their employees to become more
23 sensitive to the needs of their clients. The Council will also serve
24 as the monitoring body as regards to VAW initiatives.

25

26           The Council members may designate their duly authorized
27 representative who shall have a rank not lower than an 28 assistant secretary or its equivalent. These representatives shall 29 attend Council meetings in their behalf, and shall receive
30 emoluments as may be determined by the Council in

1                   accordance with existing budget and accounting rules and
2                   regulations."

4                 Sec. 10. Separability Clause. If any portion or provision of this Act is
5                 declared void and unconstitutional, the remaining portions or provisions hereof
6                 shall not be affected by such declaration.

7

8                 Sec. 11. Repealing Clause. All laws, decrees, orders, rules and regulations,
9                 other issuances, or parts thereof inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are 10          hereby repealed or modified accordingly.

11

12                Sec. 12. Effectivity Clause. This Act shall take effect fifteen (15) days after 13               its complete publication in at least two (2) national newspapers of general
14          circulation.

Approved,
