

EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS OF THE REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES)

SENATE

S. No. 1051

RECEIVED BY: SP

Introduced by Senator Ralph G. Recto

AN ACT

TO ENSURE THE SECURITY OF MEMBERS, OFFICIALS, EMPLOYEES AND GUESTS OF CONGRESS AND THE SAFETY OF CONGRESSIONAL PREMISES, CREATING FOR THE PURPOSE THE CONGRESSIONAL POLICE FORCE,
APPROPRIATING FUNDS THEREFOR AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Congress has traditionally relied upon law enforcement agencies like the Armed Forces of the Philippines and the Philippine National Police to complement the Offices of Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Representatives and the Senate in ensuring the security of Members and Officials of Congress as well as the safety of congressional premises. In more than one occasion, Congress has had to rely on the military and police officers to perform functions essential to legislation, such as serving subpoenas, contempt orders, and warrants of arrest. Such dependence on the executive agencies, while legally sanctioned, nonetheless impairs the independence of the Legislature and its capacity to establish its own security and operational protocols within its own premises.

This bill seeks to create a Congressional Police Force mandated to maintain peace and order, safety and security in Congress, and to perform tasks essential for Congress to carry out its legislative mandates. As the primary law enforcement agency concerned with the security of Congress, the Congressional Police shall be mandated to safeguard Members and Officials of Congress and members of their respective immediate families, as well as the employees and guests on congressional premises. As an agent of Congress, the Congressional Police is empowered to assist Members and Officials of Congress in the performance of their constitutional duties, such as serving subpoenas and warrants, effecting arrests within congressional premises, and facilitating the processing of firearms licenses and permits.

Ultimately, this bill intends to protect a cornerstone of Philippine democracy – a safe, independent, open and functioning legislature.

In view of the foregoing, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
